ARTICLE II BROKERING OF MORTGAGE LOANS

2.1 Brokering of Loans.

(a) From time to time during the term of this Agreement, Lender shall provide a Broker Compensation Form and make available the Guidelines to Broker.

(b) Upon receipt of a Disclosure Review Package, Lender shall evaluate whether the Disclosure Review Package satisfies all Lender requirements, including Applicable Requirements; provided that Lender's evaluation shall not relieve Broker of any liability hereunder. Lender may reject, in its sole discretion, any Disclosure Review Package. Each Disclosure Review Package shall constitute a certification by Broker that the Broker and the Loan Submission comply with the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement, the Guidelines, and all Applicable Requirements. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the parties acknowledge that Lender's rejection of a Disclosure Review Package because of its failure to include a required disclosure, including, but not limited to, the Loan Estimate (as applicable), that meets Lender's requirements shall not constitute an adverse action by Lender against any consumer under any Applicable Requirement. If a Disclosure Review Package satisfies Lender's requirements, Lender shall notify Broker that it may submit a Loan Submission to Lender.

(c) Portfolio transactions, if applicable, must be locked when a Loan Submission is made. A rate lock shall not constitute Lender's acceptance of a Loan Submission, an Application, or any other document, nor create any obligation for Lender.

Except as otherwise noted in this Agreement, Broker shall, during the term of this Agreement, be responsible for and shall pay in full, costs and expenses directly or indirectly incurred in performing its duties hereunder. Broker shall have no right to reimbursement of any such costs or expenses unless Lender otherwise expressly agrees to such in writing. Broker shall be liable for all costs, expenses and fees incurred for, including, but not limited to, appraisals, including review appraisals if fees are not paid by the Borrower. Broker represents and warrants that all costs, fees and expenses incurred and payable to third parties in connection with the processing of each Loan Submission that Broker submits under this Agreement have been paid and Lender shall have no liability for such costs, fees and expenses. Broker will not collect any fees, directly or indirectly, in any manner, or through an agent, from a Borrower unless permissible under Applicable Law and fully disclosed in writing to Lender. Broker is liable to Lender for any fees or charges that Lender pays to applicant resulting from Broker's under disclosure of fees on the Loan Estimate or any other errors by Broker. Broker shall reimburse Lender for such losses upon written demand by Lender.

(d) After acceptance of a disclosure Review Package and upon Registration, if applicable, Broker may submit to Lender a Loan Submission. Each Loan Submission shall constitute a certification by Broker that the Broker and the Loan Submission comply with the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement, the Guidelines, and all Applicable Requirements. Broker understands and acknowledges that Broker's use of Lender's website, including, without limitation, with respect to any pricing engine or access to an automated underwriting process, shall not constitute the submission of a Loan Submission by Broker or the acceptance of a Loan Submission by Lender. Upon receipt of a Loan Submission, Lender shall evaluate whether the Loan Submission satisfies all Lender requirements, including Applicable Requirements; provided that Lender's evaluation shall not relieve Broker of any liability hereunder. Lender may reject, in its sole discretion, any Loan Submission. If any component of a Loan Submission is incomplete, Lender may reject or hold such Loan Submission in suspense as "not accepted," pending receipt of the complete Loan Submission. If a Loan Submission satisfies Lender's requirements, and Lender approves the Loan, Lender shall notify Broker in writing. If Lender notifies Broker of its acceptance in writing, Lender shall forward the appropriate Closing instructions to a Closing Agent upon receipt of Broker's request for Closing instructions. At each Closing, Lender shall instruct the Closing Agent to pay the Broker Fee plus any other amounts due Broker as described in Section 2.2.

(e) Lender shall be solely responsible for underwriting, approving, closing and funding each Loan. Broker shall have no right, power or authority, express or implied, to approve an Application orally or in writing on behalf of Lender, or to issue to prospective Borrowers on behalf of Lender any type of binding commitment to make a Loan. Broker covenants that it shall not act outside the scope of its authority hereunder and hold itself out to prospective Borrowers as having the authority on behalf of Lender to approve Applications or issue Loan commitments, as described in Section 5.6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Broker acknowledges that it shall (i) ensure that the Loan Submission is eligible for assignment to Lender; and (ii) disclose all relevant facts and circumstances relating to the Borrower, the Mortgaged Property, payments made by the Borrower or any other person to Broker or anyone else in connection with the Loan, and the eligibility of the Loan Submission for assignment to Lender in accordance herewith.

(f) Lender shall communicate to Broker by telephone, in writing, or by e-mail Lender's approval or disapproval of the Loan Submission. Lender shall approve or deny each Loan Submission solely for its own benefit and account, and in making such determination, Lender expressly disclaims any inference Broker may draw as to the general quality or acceptability of the underlying Loan Submission. For applications submitted to Priority Wholesale Lending, Lender may contact the Borrower directly.

Lender's offer to lend will be evidenced by a "Loan Commitment Notice." The terms of the loan and commitment expiration will be a written commitment, and the loan must close within that time period. Extensions of commitments may be offered at the discretion of Lender, subject to rates and terms in effect at the time of the extension. Broker is responsible for monitoring expiration dates and obtaining all required documentation to ensure loans are closed in a timely manner. After consultation with Broker's client, Broker shall advise Lender of the client's acceptance or non-acceptance of such offer. Upon acceptance of Lender's offer, either by written or verbal communication, a formal offer will be issued as evidenced by Lender's loan documents.

(g) If Lender declines a loan or makes a counteroffer, Lender will deliver to the Broker a completed "adverse action notice" in the form required by the Equal Credit Opportunity Act specifying the reasons that Lender declined to fund the loan. If Lender delivers such notice to Broker, Broker shall deliver this adverse action notice to the Borrower within the time period required by Applicable Requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lender shall have the right to deliver adverse action notices directly to the Borrower, which right, if exercised by Lender, will not negate the Broker's obligation to deliver the adverse action notice to the Borrower.

2.2 Broker Compensation.

(a) Broker Compensation To Be Paid By Lender.

- i. Generally. The Broker Fee payable by Lender for the assignment of a Loan Submission and any resulting Loan shall be determined in accordance with a calculation based upon the Broker Compensation Exhibit A or such other method provided by Lender (collectively, the "Selection") subject to adjustment as provided in Exhibit A attached hereto, as it may be amended and supplemented from time to time, or as otherwise provided for in the Guidelines or the Broker Compensation Form itself. Broker understands that Lender shall provide Rate Sheets from time to time (sometimes as frequently as daily, if not more frequently as required by market conditions) for the loan pricing available for Borrowers that integrate various factors including Lender's costs of funds and other costs related to Loans including Broker Fees. The Parties agree that the Broker Fee is compensation for Services rendered and goods and facilities provided by Broker in connection with the origination, processing, and/or closing of a Loan under this Agreement and shall (1) be in amounts that bear a reasonable relationship to the Services rendered and goods and facilities provided; (2) be based upon a good faith estimate of the fair market value of such Services, goods and facilities; (3) not be in amounts deemed excessive or unreasonable under any Applicable Requirement; and (4) not be charged on an illegal or discriminatory basis. All such Broker Fees shall be disclosed and itemized on the Loan Estimate and on the Closing Disclosure in accordance with Applicable Requirements and Lender's requirements; and shall be paid in accordance with this Agreement. No Broker Fee shall be owed to Broker on any Loan Submission unless and until a related Loan has funded and closed.

- ii. Limitation on Compensation from Multiple Parties. Broker will not receive or accept, and no Broker affiliate shall receive or accept, except for bona fide third-party services paid for at market rates, any fee or payment of any kind in connection with Loans from or on behalf of more than one party (either the Lender or Borrower, but not both). In the event that an affiliate of Broker receives any funds for third-party services, no portion thereof shall be retained by Broker.
- iii. Limitation on Compensation Adjustment. Broker shall not cause its compensation to increase or decrease once set (as provided for in Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. § 1026.36, along with any other Applicable Requirements), including but not limited to adjusting Loan terms to result in higher or lower compensation, paying any fees for any Borrower, monetarily curing any errors in connection with any particular Loan, and reducing compensation or otherwise providing any credits for the benefit of any Borrower to avoid any high-cost thresholds or other thresholds.
- iv. Lender's Right to Adjust Future Compensation. Broker understands and agrees that Lender, in its sole and absolute discretion, may use criteria such as but not limited to loan quality, performance of prior loans (including early payment default, early payoff, accuracy, and completeness), and compliance with standards required by the Guidelines, to adjust up or down future Broker compensation. Provided, however, that changes to compensation shall not occur except at such intervals as Lender decides in its sole and absolute discretion, but in no event more frequently than quarterly. Any requests from Broker to adjust compensation amounts may be considered at Lender's sole and absolute discretion, and the implementation thereof, if acceptable to Lender, may be delayed to such time as Lender determines, including but not limited to the expiration of any then current rate plans. Adjustments will not be made based on the terms of the Broker's Loans.
 - (b) Switching Between Lender and Borrower Paid Compensation. In the event a Loan Submission is to be changed from providing for Borrower-paid Broker compensation to Lender-paid Broker compensation, or from Lender-paid Broker compensation to Borrower-paid Broker compensation, it may be done with Lender's prior written consent only, and subject to Lender's requirements and applicable laws, regulations and requirements. The change, if approved by Lender, must still meet RESAP requirements as a change in compensation is not a valid pricing/cost change under RESPA.
 - (c) Broker Compensation to be Paid by Borrower.
 - i. Generally. Broker may not impose any fees upon Borrower for any reason except as provided in this Agreement, and only to the extent permissible under Applicable Requirements; provided, that: (i) if required by Applicable Requirements, such fees shall be imposed pursuant to a duly executed written agreement between Broker and Borrowers; and (ii) Broker shall provide Borrowers with any disclosure statement required by Applicable Requirements. Broker shall provide Lender with a copy of each such written agreement and disclosure statement along with each Application delivered to Broker hereunder. If requested by the Borrower and supported by the appraisal, such brokerage fee may be financed in the Loan principal and paid to Broker on behalf of the Borrower at or after Closing; provided, however, that in all events such compensation shall be disclosed on the Loan Estimate, and on the Closing Disclosure, in accordance with Applicable Requirements. Broker acknowledges and agrees that it may not receive any compensation or fees in excess of amounts disclosed in accordance with Applicable Requirements and Lender's requirements.
 - ii. Funds for Compensation When Borrower-Paid. On Loans for which the Borrower is to pay Broker its compensation, Broker will not accept any compensation from the Borrower unless it is paid with Borrower's own funds or principal proceeds of the Loan, and in no event from premium pricing interest rate credits received for the benefit of Borrower from Lender. To the extent they exist, such interest rate credits may be used only for third-party closing costs or other costs of Borrower in connection with the Loan. Such interest rate credits will not result in the Broker Fee paid by the Borrower being less than the entire Broker Fee.

Exempt Transactions. The provisions of this Article II apply only to consumer credit transactions secured by a dwelling, as those terms are defined in TILA and Regulation Z. For transactions that are not subject to the loan originator compensation rules, 12 C.F.R. §1026.36, Lender and Broker shall separately negotiate and determine the Broker's compensation.

42 Enforceability of Loan. The Loan, when made by Lender, will not be subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including the defense of usury, nor will the operation of any of the terms of the Note or the Mortgage Instrument, or the exercise of any right thereunder, render the Loan unenforceable, in whole or in part, or subject to any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including the defense of usury, as a result of any act, error or omission of Broker or of any other Person of which Broker is aware. In the event that the submission of a Loan to Lender by Broker results in funding which is subsequently rescinded by the borrower pursuant to the Truth-In- Lending Act, Regulation Z or any similar law or regulation, Broker shall immediately reimburse Lender the full amount of any broker fees, however denominated, which Lender paid to the borrower as a result of the borrower's rescission.

43 Regulatory Compliance; Loan Options Safe Harbor. Any and all Applicable Requirements applicable to the Loan Submission and Loan have been complied with, and Broker shall maintain in its possession, available for Lender's inspection, and shall deliver to Lender upon demand, evidence of compliance with all such Applicable Requirements. All disclosures provided to Borrower, whether made by Broker, Lender or a third party (i) are true, complete and correct; (ii) were made timely in compliance with all Applicable Requirements; and (iii) are within all applicable tolerance levels for fees or charges.

Additionally, for each Loan Submission submitted by Broker to Lender where Lender is to pay Broker compensation, Broker shall, in a timely manner, present each Borrower with the loan options necessary to meet the "safe harbor" provisions to comply with the prohibition on steering under Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. § 1026.36(e), as may be amended from time to time (along with any other Applicable Requirements). Broker will not guide, incent or otherwise cause a Borrower to pick one lender over another because of compensation or other benefits to Broker. Each loan option disclosure shall be provided not later than three business days after Broker's receipt of a Borrower's Application, unless materially impracticable, in which case it shall be provided no later than seven business days after Broker's receipt of a Borrower's Application. A copy shall be included in each applicable Loan Submission delivered to Lender.

1. To the best of Broker's knowledge, the actual loan-to-value ratio of each Loan will not exceed the maximum amount permitted under the Guidelines or by Investors and Insurers for such Loan.
2. In connection with Loan Submissions, all appraisals must be ordered and completed in compliance with all Applicable Requirements, including the AIR. Lender will not accept any appraisal report completed by an appraiser selected, retained, or compensated in any manner by any interested third party (including any real estate agent or broker not approved by the Lender). Appraisals must be ordered through Lender's approved AMC.
3. Lender will not accept appraisals ordered by a Borrower or by a real estate agent.

Broker, or anyone associated with the Broker, will not contact the appraiser regarding value or influencing value. Broker agrees to all AIR requirements and certifies on each loan submitted to Lender that AIR has not been violated.

45 Compensation. No Broker Fee exceeds the maximum amount permitted by, or that was calculated in a manner inconsistent with, Applicable Requirements. Broker has provided sufficient Services to justify the Broker Fee. Neither Broker nor its officers, agents or employees have received any direct or indirect benefit, fee, commission or other consideration of value from Borrower or any other Person except as disclosed to Borrower.

46 No Interested Party Transactions. Broker shall not submit, and Lender will not accept, Loans in which the Broker or any Person related to or affiliated with the Broker acts as a real estate agent or broker is also a party to the transaction, including being a borrower or being a guarantor, partner, seller, owner, or manager of the Borrower. Lender will not accept Loans made to Broker's employees or to agents of Broker.

Lender will not accept Loans in which the escrow company or other Closing Agent is owned by or affiliated with Broker. Additionally, Broker shall not submit, and Lender will not accept, Loans in which the Broker or any Person related to or affiliated with the Broker acts as a real estate agent or broker on a loan.

submission of any Loan Submission to Lender shall create or be deemed to create a partnership, joint venture, agency or employment relationship between Broker and Lender. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create an exclusive relationship in any market or geographic area between Lender and Broker. Broker acknowledges that Lender has entered into agreements with other brokers that are the same or similar to this Agreement. Broker covenants and agrees that Broker shall not in any way represent or imply to any Borrower that Broker is in any way affiliated or connected with Lender or that Broker has any power or authority to bind Lender, including any representation that Broker's office is an office or branch of Lender. EXHIBIT A

Pursuant to Section 2.2 of this Agreement, the Broker Fee for a Loan Submission and any resulting Loan is to be determined in accordance with a calculation based upon the Broker Compensation Form, subject to adjustment as provided in this Exhibit A, as it may be amended and supplemented from time to time, or as otherwise provided for in the Guidelines, updates or the Broker Compensation Form itself.

Lender may provide adjustments to the Broker Fee as set forth in the Broker Compensation Form which may include increases and decreases, in percentages or in fixed amounts, relating to various factors, as determined by Lender in its sole and absolute discretion (the “Factors”). The Factors may include, but are not limited to, long term performance of Loans, early payment defaults, early payoffs, quality of Loans, and quality of Loan Submissions. Factors will never include the terms of any Loans or any proxies for the terms of any Loans.

A.1 BROKER COMPENSATION FOR CONSUMER LOANS:

All loan programs and the Broker Compensation Plans listed below have been designed not to exceed high-cost loan thresholds.

Source of compensation. For every loan transaction submitted to Lender, the Broker must choose the source of Broker Compensation prior to loan submission:

- a. Borrower Paid Compensation or;
- b. Lender Paid Compensation.

A change from Borrower Paid Compensation to Lender Paid Compensation, or the other way around from Lender to Borrower Paid Compensation is not a valid change under RESPA.

Dual Compensation Prohibited. Broker agrees that Broker cannot receive compensation from both the borrower and a party other than the borrower (including the lender) for the same transaction. No dual compensation is permitted.

Borrower paid compensation. Borrower paid broker compensation may include seller concessions. Borrower paid compensation is negotiated by the broker directly with the borrower and may vary on each individual loan transaction but, may not exceed the amount that the broker selects for its lender paid broker compensation. The amount is set with the borrower at the time of application and may not change. By choosing to be paid by the borrower, the broker may not receive any compensation directly or indirectly from any other party or entity to the transaction, or outside the transaction, including the lender.

Lender Paid Broker Compensation. When the Lender pays the Broker’s compensation, the Broker will be paid according to the Lender paid broker compensation plan. The Broker may select a Lender paid broker compensation plan with a percentage beginning at one percent (1.00%) which is available in increments of one eighth of one percent (0.125%) up to a maximum of three percent (3.00%).

Lender Paid Compensation Limits Per Loan:

Maximum Compensation: $30,000.00

Minimum Compensation: $1.00

Borrower Paid Compensation:

- Amount of compensation is negotiated with borrower and may be lowered throughout the loan process, but never increased.
- The amount of the Borrower Paid Compensation cannot be greater than the amount selected above for Lender Paid Compensation.
- Brokers can lower comp, pay for adjustments or offer credits towards third party costs.
- Borrowers may pay discount points to reduce their interest rate.
- Borrower may use Lender Credit from the interest rate chosen to pay for third party fees, but such Lender Credit may not be used to cover any amount of the Borrower- Paid Broker compensation (Interest rate must be reduced if premium exceeds any third-party fees).
- Broker may not change the compensation plan from Borrower-Paid to Lender-Paid Compensation under any circumstance.
- Seller credits are considered borrower's funds and applied as principal reduction.
- Broker may charge a broker processing fee in addition to an origination fee as long as the combined total does not exceed their comp plan.

Lender Paid Compensation:

- 100% of the Broker's compensation must be paid by Lender.
- Compensation must match exactly to Broker's compensation plan on file.
- Brokers may change compensation plan on periodic basis, but no more than quarterly.
- New compensation will go into effect immediately on effective date requested for new submissions.
- Borrower may use Lender Credits from the interest rate chosen to pay for third-party fees (Interest rate must be reduced if Lender Credit exceeds any third-party fees).
- Borrowers may pay discount points to reduce the interest rate.
- Brokers may not lower compensation, pay for adjustments, offer credits towards third party costs or offer other concessions.
- Broker may change compensation plan from Lender-Paid to a Borrower-Paid Compensation only prior to loan submission. This not a valid Cost to Cure under RESPA.
- Seller credits are considered borrower's funds and applied as principal reduction.

Third Party Costs. In a Lender Paid Broker Compensation loan, the Lender shall be the only party that shall pay the Broker compensation based on the above. In both Lender Paid Broker Compensation loans and Borrower Paid Broker Compensation loans, a borrower may choose a higher interest rate to cover the third-party closing costs only. None of the excess amounts may be paid to the Broker as compensation.

A.2 BROKER COMPENSATION FOR BUSINESS PURPOSE LOANS (Investor DSCR Loans):

- Brokers may earn compensation from a combination of Processing Fees, Lender Paid Broker Rebates AND/OR Borrower Paid Point and fees up to a maximum of 4 points combined with no set compensation plan.

A.3 OPERATIONS:

A Borrower may choose a higher interest rate to cover the third-party closing costs. Any excess amounts remaining after the payment of third-party closing costs must be returned to the Borrower. None of the excess amounts may be paid to the Broker.

Broker acknowledges that Lender shall provide Rate Sheets from time to time (sometimes as frequently as daily, if not more frequently as required by market conditions) for the loan pricing available for Borrowers that integrate various factors including Lender's costs of funds and other costs related to Loans including any Broker Fee.

Broker acknowledges that the Broker Fee (i) is compensation for services to be rendered and goods and facilities Broker will provide in connection with the origination, processing, and/or closing of each Loan; (ii) bears a reasonable relationship to the Services rendered and goods and facilities provided; is based upon our good faith estimate of the fair market value of such Services, goods and facilities; (iii) is not excessive or unreasonable under any Applicable Requirement; (iv) is subject to all the terms and conditions of the Mortgage Broker Agreement and that no payment of the Broker Fee is due from Lender unless and until all requirements in the Mortgage Broker Agreement are satisfied; (v) will be effective for all Loans for which a Loan Submission is given to Lender on or after the effective date as provided by Lender; and (vi) no portion of which will be paid for a given Loan if the Borrower on such Loan pays any broker compensation.

Broker further understands and agrees that this and any subsequent Broker Fee amount is only a request for a Broker Fee to be set, and that Lender, in its sole and absolute discretion, may use criteria such as but not limited to loan quality, performance of prior loans (including early payment default, early payoff, accuracy, completeness), and compliance with standards required by the Guidelines, to adjust up or down future lender-paid compensation; provided, however, that changes to compensation shall not occur except at such intervals as Lender decides in its sole and absolute discretion, and in compliance with Applicable Requirements. Any requests from Broker to adjust compensation amounts may be considered at Lender's sole and absolute discretion, and the implementation thereof, if acceptable to Lender, may be delayed to such time as Lender determines. In addition, changes to the lender-paid compensation plan may be requested as follows:

1) Frequency of Change – Once every quarter; change dates are January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1, if allowed in the sole discretion of Lender and review of current financial statements (income statement and balance sheet).

2) Method of Change – The Compensation Plan Administrator must submit a signed and dated compensation change request form to Lender one week prior to the allowed quarterly change date.

Broker must designate one person to be the Compensation Plan Administrator ("Administrator"). The Administrator will be the person with the sole authority to select and change the Broker's compensation plan on behalf of Broker. The Broker hereby designates the following person as the Administrator and their primary e-mail address is included below:

Compensation Plan Administrator Name:
Title:
Primary E-Mail:

The Broker may change the designated Administrator by providing Lender with written notice signed and dated by the Broker. Steering Borrowers to a Loan based on the fact that the Broker will receive greater compensation for such Loan is prohibited, unless the transaction is in the Borrowers' interest. For each Loan submitted by the Broker, if the compensation source is lender-paid, the Broker must provide to Lender an Anti-Steering Disclosure that describes the options presented to the Borrower for each type of loan in which the Borrower expressed an interest. The Anti-Steering Disclosure must include the following:

- 1) The loan with the lowest interest rate;
- 2) The loan with the lowest interest rate without negative features; and
- 3) The loan with the lowest total dollar amount for origination points or fees and discount points.

The Anti-Steering Disclosure must be acknowledged by the Borrower and included in the Loan File. Broker agrees to provide the Borrower acknowledged Anti-Steering Disclosure upon loan Submission.

Broker shall be solely responsible for the payment of compensation to its loan officers. Broker agrees that all compensation paid by Broker to Broker's loan officers must conform with all of the requirements of TILA and all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations.

This Addendum supersedes all prior Broker Compensation Forms between the parties and may not be contradicted by evidence of prior or contemporaneous oral agreements between the parties. There are no oral agreements between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Addendum. In the event of a conflict among any term contained in this Addendum and the Broker Agreement, this Addendum shall control. All other terms in the Agreement not in conflict with this Addendum shall remain in full force and effect.

I, the authorized signer for and on behalf of the Broker hereby elect the following percentage of loan amount for determining Broker's Lender-Paid Compensation amount in compliance with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System's Regulation Z to the Truth in Lending Act, for all loans where borrower(s) have chosen to have PFN Lending Group, Inc., dba SOLVE MORTGAGE pay the Broker's Compensation.

This Addendum may be executed in counterparts. Each counterpart shall be deemed an original, and all counterparts shall be deemed the same instruments with the same effect as if all parties had signed the same signature page.

Owner's Name: _____

This exhibit is applicable only if the Broker is organized as a sole proprietorship. Any Broker organized in any form other than a sole proprietorship should not execute this exhibit. To the extent that the Broker is organized under any other structure, this exhibit does not apply, even if executed by the Broker. Any attempt by a Broker organized in any form other than a sole proprietorship to enforce the provisions of this exhibit will be null and void.

In accordance with the Mortgage Broker Agreement, Broker represents that it is organized as a sole proprietorship that consists of only one individual (or of a husband and wife, to the extent allowed by applicable law). As such, there is no separate legal entity to the Broker, and the owner is personally liable for the debts and actions of the Broker. In accordance with these facts, the Mortgage Broker Agreement is amended as follows:

- General provisions: To the extent that the Agreement refers to the Broker and its “employees,” “loan originators,” “representatives,” “officers,” “agents,” “directors,” or any other similar individuals (whether in the plural or singular), that provision shall be interpreted as applying only to the Broker (and the owner’s spouse, to the extent applicable).
- Article I: The term “Person” shall be defined to include a sole proprietorship and its owner.
- Article III, Section 3.1: This section is revised to read as follows (underlined text to be added):

Due Organization and Regulatory Approvals. Broker is and shall continue during the term of this Agreement duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its state of organization, to the extent applicable to a sole proprietorship. Broker and its individual loan originators have and shall continue to maintain in full force and effect all licenses, authorization, approvals, registrations, and certifications in all appropriate jurisdictions to conduct all activities performed with respect to the brokering of the Loans, as necessary and applicable, including, without limitation, as required by the S.A.F.E. Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008. Broker is approved and in good standing with each Insurer. Broker meets any and all of the eligibility criteria specified by Lender.

- Article IX, Section 9.14: This section is revised to read as follows (underlined text to be added):

Financial Statements. Upon written request of Lender, and annually during the term of this Agreement, Broker shall deliver to Lender a complete set of (a) unaudited, certified financial statements for the preceding fiscal year; and/or (b) unaudited, certified financial statements for the immediately preceding fiscal quarter. The financial statements for a sole proprietorship may address only the sole proprietor's mortgage brokerage business, to the extent possible.
